Best Calico 10cts per yard at Stadelers.
Latest styles in Scarf and Neckties at Stadelers.
Dr. Compton has an interesting card of his bird-hunts, elsewhere.
J. Stader & Son are daily in receipt of new goods, at enormous low prices.
We return our thanks to Wm. J. Brown, Jr. for a copy of Hardee's map of the Battle of New Orleans for Freedom.
Buy your Gents' Furnishing goods at Stadelers.
Fair Ground Privileges will be disposed of next Monday morning at 10 o'clock by best bidders.
A protracted meeting is in progress at the Methodist church, under charge of Rev. H. Galloway. It was inaugurated on Sabbath last, by a very able and instructive discourse, from Rev. J. M. Smiley.
STATE DENTAL ASSOCIATION.—All dentists in the State favorable to the foundation of a State Dental Association, are requested to meet at Jackson, Miss., on Wednesday, the 29th day of October.
Yesterday we had the pleasure of a call from our old friend and valued friend, Dr. H. T. Thomas, of Yazoo, who was en route home from the Allegheny Springs, Virginia, where he has spent the summer.
Fine line, French and American Cases at Stadelers.
THE FIRST LAST MONDAY NIGHT.—A grand affair on South Jefferson street, facing the river, was held last Monday night. The fair was believed to be the work of the fairies. All the fire companies came and promptly, Gen No. 2 getting first water.
You may be well known in your town without a notice, but you are not known in our town, and we will strike for better towns than this. There is no special merit in getting trade among your own friends.
We have received from Dr. J. R. S. Smith, the author, through the Pilot Publishing Company, a copy of the Life of James Oglethorpe, the great Southern land pirate, who was hung for murder, at Augusta, Georgia, Mississippi, in 1857. The book is very interesting. We return our thanks.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—We are within the last week, received two anonymous communications, which we will decline. No communications of any kind whatever will be published in the Clarion, unless accompanied by the author's name.
A SLENNID ARTIST.—We are indebted to the accomplished artist, Mr. Suter, of this city, for an elegant photograph of the members of the State Grange, taken collectively, and presenting a faithful likeness of the male and female representatives of the Order, lately in session at the capital.
We have received from Col. J. J. Shannon, the Secretary, the Premium List of the 3rd Annual Fair for the East, Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical Association, held at Meridian, Nov. 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, and the 1st to 4th of December, 1873. Dr. J. J. Shannon will deliver the annual address, to listen to which will be worth a trip to Meridian.
About Bitters.—At certain periods of life it is necessary to take a dose of medicine to keep the system in good order, and to obviate the danger of disease while giving temporary relief to the system, and to prevent the public a whole from being misled by the false promises of the OXYGENATED BITTERS, Dr. J. J. Shannon has prepared the OXYGENATED BITTERS, which cure Dyspepsia and all kindred ailments, sold everywhere. JOHN F. BAKER, CHAS. & CO., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.
Stadelers sells Bleached Domestic at 10c per yard.
Capital Grange, No. 19.
At the last meeting, Saturday, 30th, September, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Wm. J. Brown, Jr., President.
Thomas Atkinson, Vice-President.
E. B. Chiles, Secretary.
Wm. B. Bell, Treasurer.
A. C. Stewart, Chaplain.
Rev. C. Parish, Pastor.
A. G. Moore, Steward.
J. W. Patton, Secretary.
Wm. Robb, Gate-keeper.
LADY OFFICERS.
Mrs. L. F. Alford, President.
Miss Katie Whitson, Vice-President.
Miss Sally Atkinson, Secretary.
Miss Amy Stewart, Treasurer.
The NEW GAME OF CHIVALLIE.—We are indebted to the inventors and manufacturers, West & Lee Game Printing Co., of Worcester, Mass., a beautiful and novel game, some time since, but deferred speaking of it until we had thoroughly tested it. This elegant lawn amusement was introduced to the public in the number of the 1st of September, and was received with great and universal favor. The game was made and sold at summer prices, to the credit of the water-works; it gained much notice through the editorial columns of the papers as the N. Y. Herald, Times, Commercial and others, unprecedented celebrity. The sets are made of unbreakable brass, and cost from $5.00 to $10.00, according to size and workmanship. Chivallie can be better described by saying it is a conquest which Chess is to Checkers. Like Chess, it admits of a multitude of combinations. Send to the above address for a circular.
Act on the Benefactors.—Persons who are subjected to the influence of bad air and unwholesome water, to constant exposure of doors and windows, to cold weather, should at once defend themselves by purchasing the Bitters, a complete safeguard against the effects of exposure. Travelers testify that they are protected from the influence of cold, and from the influence of the weather. Free from every objectionable feature, pure and delicious, containing only vegetable ingredients, it is not surprising that the Bitters should be the most popular of American remedies.
Youths and Gents' Clothing of every description, can be had at Stadelers.

MARRIED.
In the Methodist church, Hazlehurst, Mississippi, September 10, 1874, by Rev. E. H. Moulter, Mr. Charles A. Redding and Miss Sallie A. Linfield, second daughter Rev. William E. M. Linfield, of the Mississippi Conference.
OBITUARY.
Died—On Wednesday, Sept. 23d, 1874, at 6 o'clock, a. m. in Jackson, Miss., BIRDIE JONES, aged 15 years, 6 months, and 16 days.
"O! God, to hold those fingers close, And yet to feel so lonely, To see a light on dearest brows, That is the daylight only."
BIRDIE is dead. The words are a knell to many a hope, and brings sorrow to many a heart, even while we feel she has been transplanted to that "beautiful land of rest," from which she would not recall her. Her sweet, brief life, began March 7th, 1859, she was named Kate Lane; but has been called "BIRDIE," until something so bright and lovely clings round the pet name that we would find meet her "Beyond the River" as our "BIRDIE" of old, sainted, and buried by association with the "BIRDIE" that was born for a better destiny than earth, and has been called so soon to fill a higher sphere.
Day by day, in the blank stillness of her absence, we realize more fully, the excellence of her nature, and feel that all, we may offer as a tribute to her memory, must sound feeble and meaningless to those who knew her best and admired and loved her most.
She became a member of the Christian church of this place in August, 1872, and to look through her diary and see the purity of feeling and innocent expression of the beautiful thoughts straying from her radiant hand and rare intellect, would be a very rare sight. To God had intended, for the very first, to only let the lively spirit stray from her heritage long enough to entwine our heart's affections so perfectly about her that the glorious aspiration to meet her in the "other life," would leap like angels from the temple of our beings when we were called upon to give her out of this life.
Her illness was protracted and severe, but no murmur ever escaped her lips; patient and gentle through every affliction, she grew unconscious of her suffering, and as the glories of a new and sad day of experience dawned upon us here, her beautiful spirit winged its way back to her home, and to all those customers of Allen & Ligon, and Wm. H. Allen & Co., we announce that we will spare no effort to maintain for the house the liberal patronage it has heretofore enjoyed.
"Whom brighten and brighten, as time steals away,"
"They give a new charm to the happiest lot."
"And shine on the gloom of the loneliest day."
Faithful in the Sunday School, active in the cause of Temperance, which will be missed at every step we take in our every-day lives. We will listen in vain for the lovely, thrilling words of our happy songstress. BIRDIE's death has been a long and lonely hour for fond hearts, now made desolate by her silence. She is gone; and to her memory we raise a monument of hearts, cemented by affection, more lasting and significant than the piles of granite with which friends and nations love to honor their dead. The young hearts that are still forever, and who shall say that she, in whom the work of the Creator shone most brightly, has not gone to a delightful and everlasting life of purity and rest.
DIED.
In Richmond, Ky., Sept. 13, 1874, Mrs. LOUISE V. RICHARDSON, wife of Prof. W. G. Richardson, of Central University, youngest daughter of Rev. Dr. R. L. Kenyon, and sister of Mrs. J. F. Payne, of Brandon, aged 30 years, 7 months and 9 days, leaving a husband, seven children and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Too Late.
The way men put off important matters to the last moment, is one of the causes of our troubles. The fifth concert in aid of the Public Library of Kentucky was advertised to take place July 31. The day after, August 1, Gov. Cassinette, the Mayor of Louisville, received over $50,000 for tickets. Had the drawing taken place at the time advertised, the Governor would have had to send this money back, but as the concert was postponed to November 30, it was all right with him. We presume that on the first day of December next, the day after the concert, thousands of dollars will be received one day too late, for there will be no further postponement. This money might just as well have been sent a week before, as when it was.
